

Second Health Policy Summit: Reducing the Uninsured: A Plan for Action

Sponsored by Delaware Health Care Commission— the second of three state-wide policy conferences on developing a plan to improve the health of Delawareans by improving access to insurance and services.

Conference Highlights:

- New Information: About the uninsured, employers perspectives, options to expand coverage, and more
- Your Chance to Share Your Opinion!

Preliminary Agenda

8:00 to 8:30	Registration
8:30	Conference Begins Sharing New Information Audience Response
10:30	Break
10:45	Options for Expanding Coverage & Access Audience Response Wrap Up and Next Steps
12:30	Conference Adjourns

Program Participants

Lt. Governor John C. Carney
DE Health and Social Services Secretary Vincent C. Meconi
Paula K. Roy, Executive Director, DE Health Care Commission
Jeremy Alberga, Academy for Health Services Research and Health Policy
Vickie Gates, Academy for Health Services Research and Health Policy
Edward C. Ratledge, Center for Applied Demography and Survey Research (CADSR) University of Delaware
Tibor Toth, CADSR, University of Delaware
Elliot Wicks, PhD, Health Management Associates

Sponsored by Delaware Health Care Commission—

150 William Penn Street Phone: 302-744-4384
Tatnall Building - Ground Floor Fax: 302-739-6927
Dover Delaware 19901 Email: www.state.de.us/dhcc

The Delaware Health Care Commission is an independent public body reporting to the Governor and General Assembly working to promote accessible, affordable, quality health care for all Delawareans.